Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving for CPE

We thank God for His grace and guidance, the efforts of the pastoral team, as well as the active participation of everyone, which made SKMC's CPE possible, despite this trying time of pandemic.

Through the CPE, many have broadened their perspectives, and their eyes have been opened to the many needs through interceding in prayer. Some have also built up a habit of having a more disciplined prayer life; for this, we are especially thankful.

May the Lord continue to help us to always be joyful, pray unceasingly, and be thankful in all circumstances, for this is God's will for us who belong to Christ Jesus.

SCORE Sengkang RC Food Distribution Thanksgiving

Outreach and Social Concern Committee (SCORE) thank God for the opportunity to show care and support to our neighbours at Block 350 by distributing food packs to them, and for the five members of SKMC who participated in the Sengkang RC Food Distribution event on 26 June 2020.

40.day 2020

JULY 1 - AUGUST 9

IN THE LONG RUN

They don't have the virus yet. But they are showing symptoms of a highly contagious disease that is more sinister and deadly than Covid-19. It started in the first century AD and continues to this day. It's the Pandemic of Casual Christianity. The church addressed in the Book of Hebrews was one of the original clusters.

The symptoms of this disease are alarming: Neglecting salvation. Drifting from the Gospel. Skipping church. Running after strange teachings. Skirting the edge of apostasy. And many more. All second generation concerns.

Hebrews is a sermon scripted for a church in crisis. With scientific precision, the Preacher diagnoses the root cause of their problems: Inadequate Christology. They don't know Jesus well enough. As a spiritual health scientist, the Preacher not only prescribes the cure. He also administers it in a riveting message that still speaks today.

In the Long Run is the theme of 40.Day 2020. It's a listening journey through the Sermon to the Hebrews. You are invited to zoom in starting from July First 2020.
